CIVIL MINUTES

As more fully set forth on the record,

The matter will be continued to January 3, 2023, at 9:00 a.m. to allow time for the parties to complete written discovery and depositions.

The Court noted that the issues to be resolved are set forth in ECF No. 56, paras. 1A, 1B and 1C. Not later than 14 days prior to the continued hearing, the parties will file a joint status report addressing all issues articulated in ECF No. 56, to the extent that they have changed, and to update the status of discovery.

The Clerk's office will serve notice on the creditors included in the Verification of Master Address List filed November 22, 2022, ECF No. 54.

The Court intends to set a trial date at the next hearing if no other creditors join. The parties have estimated a one-day trial, and the court will order the use of Alternate Direct Testimony. The trial will be scheduled either in late February or early March 2023.

The court will issue an order.
